Dear

Following up on my telephone conversation with you on 23 October 1981 I am delighted that you are willing to host my class on 23 November 1981. Soon after I was asked by Dr. Corey to give the "Introduction to Cartography" course at the University of Maryland it became clear and imperative to expose the students to the real world of production cartography. Although I admit to a certain amount of bias, there is no doubt that your Division offers the best opportunity for anyone, especially cartography students, to obtain a comprehensive overview of what is taking place in today's field of mapmaking. So many others, particularly college professors, refer to the Division as "the best" that I'm beginning to feel they are correct. (Not that I ever had any doubt.) The fact that you continue to be so generous with your expertise is, indeed, a credit to you, the Division and the Agency. The students will carpool and arrive in private cars.

Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Henry Frieswyk
